

Interpreting the Prayers of the Catholic Mass

Saturday, November 11, 2017
9:30 am – 12:30 pm

Archdiocesan Pastoral Center
222 North 17th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19103

Free parking available
Registration & refreshments starting at 9:00 am

Presenter: Rev. Christopher Klusman

Father Chris is a Deaf priest ordained in 2011 who ministers to the Deaf Community in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

Father Chris Klusman will give a history of interpreting the Catholic Mass and examine the congregational responses of the Mass. Being faithful to the theological meaning and the structure of ASL, he will guide participants in gaining skills to interpret the Sacred Liturgy.

Cost: Interpreters: $25 (Includes CEU's) Deaf Community: $15 Pizza /Salad Lunch included

CEU's - 0.3: DHCC is an approved RID CMP sponsor for Continuing Education Activities. This workshop is offered for CEU's in the area of Professional Studies and has an instructional level of some knowledge of this topic. The target audience is advanced students, certified interpreters, interpreters working in religious settings and/or preparing to work in religious settings.

Deaf Apostolate / sr.kschipani@archphila.org / Video Phone 267-507-1215 / Fax 215-587-3561 / Voice Phone 215-587-3913
Registration deadline November 1, 2017 For questions, cancellation/refund policy or reasonable accommodations requests contact the Deaf Apostolate. The workshop will be given in ASL without voice interpreting. Site is wheelchair accessible.

Interpreter Workshop/ November 11, 2017

NAME(s) _____ PHONE _____ VP/Text/V
ADDRESS _____ FAX _____
_____ E-MAIL _____

DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 1, 2017

Interpreters Attending _____ X $25
Deaf Community Attending _____ X $15
Applying for CEU's ___yes ___no

Make checks payable to:
Deaf Apostolate
Archdiocese of Philadelphia
222 N. 17th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19103
www.DeafCatholicPhilly.org

Register On Line Here